

Fairbanks North Star Borough Public Libraries Borrowing Services Policy

This policy has been established to provide fair and equitable access to library materials that are available for loan from the Fairbanks North Star Borough Public Libraries.

LIBRARY CARDS--ELIGIBILITY AND REQUIREMENTS:

Any person residing or owning property in the Fairbanks North Star Borough (FNSB) is eligible for a free library card from the FNSB Public Libraries

The signature of a parent or legal guardian is required for persons under the age of 18 wishing to acquire a library card. The signing adult must accompany the minor child, meet the same requirements, and provide all the required information for a standard FNSB library card. Parents or legal guardians who sign for a minor child's library card accept financial responsibility for items borrowed with that card, as well as any fines or fees incurred with it. There is a fee to replace a lost FNSB library card.

FNSB library cards are scheduled for renewal periodically in order to maintain current records.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF LIBRARY CARDHOLDERS:

All FNSB library cardholders accept responsibility for any use of their card and agree to abide by FNSB library policies and procedures. Patrons should have a current FNSB library card in good standing in order to borrow library materials. Lost or stolen cards must be reported to FNSB Libraries immediately, and any change of name, address, email address, or phone number should be reported promptly.

FNSB Library procedures will be followed for the handling of items that are:

- Lost
- Damaged
- Returned overdue
- Returned with parts/pieces missing
- Claims returned by patrons

FNSB Libraries do not charge overdue fines, but the cost of the item plus a processing charge will be assessed in accordance with FNSB library procedures for lost or damaged materials or for materials returned with parts/pieces missing.

Fairbanks North Star Borough Public Libraries Borrowing Services Policy

BORROWING LIBRARY MATERIALS:

Use of an FNSB Library Card

FNSB Library cards are intended to allow patrons the privilege of borrowing materials from the collection, using in-library services such as the public computers, accessing licensed online content, borrowing materials from other Alaska Library Catalog (ALC) member libraries, and using Interlibrary Loan services. Some library items, such as those in reference collections, may only be used in the library. All circulating items may be checked out to any FNSB cardholder in good standing.

Use of Alaska Library Catalog (ALC) Member Library Card

Patrons who have a library card in good standing from an ALC member library may borrow materials from FNSB libraries. However, only FNSB library cardholders in good standing have access to licensed online content or Interlibrary Loan (ILL) through FNSB libraries. Cardholders from other ALC libraries agree to abide by FNSB policies and procedures.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF LIBRARY RECORDS:

The library maintains a confidential database of its users which includes information for personal identification, as well as any library items currently checked out to that borrower. The library does not maintain records of items that individuals have borrowed and returned in the past, except when there are unresolved issues with those items. Collection and maintenance of this information is necessary so that the library can account for Borough property. The library maintains the confidentiality of patron library records in accordance with Alaska Statute AS 40.25.140 Confidentiality of Library Records.* This statute prohibits release of any information about a cardholder's record except to the cardholder.

Law Enforcement Requests for Patron Information

AS 40.25.140 protects the confidentiality of library records except when required by court order. Such requests will be addressed by the Library Director or designated acting Library Director..
