The story of a remarkable Alaska Native woman's fight for and eventual passage of America's first civil rights legislation is brought to life as never before by Alaskan author and educator, Annie Boochever, in collaboration with Elizabeth's eldest son, Roy Peratrovich Jr. This book is of an inspirational Alaskan and American hero, written for ages ten through young adult.

This event for youth and adults is sponsored by the League of Women Voters of the Tanana Valley in honor of Elizabeth Peratrovich Day and the 100th Anniversary of the League of the Women Voters US this month.
